Your Duty of Disclosure

You have a duty to disclose any material facts to us. You must tell us everything you know (or could be reasonably expected to know) that a prudent insurer would want to take into account in deciding:

- whether to accept your proposal and
- if so, on what terms and at what premium.

Examples of what you must tell us include:

- anything that increases the risk of a claim
- any criminal offending or convictions
- any previous insurance claims that cannot be withheld under the Criminal records (Clean Slate) Act 2004
- any refusal by another insurance to insure you on standard terms, or continue to insure you on standard terms.

You have this duty every time this policy renews, or when you request any changes to it. If you fail to do this, we may avoid the policy retrospectively. You will have no insurance at all. When in doubt disclose.

Change of circumstances

You must tell us of any material changes in your circumstances after the policy starts or during the currency of the cover and/or after any renewal.
